NATIVE SONS' BENEFIT BALL FOR LITTLE CHILDREN

Benefit Arranged for Homeless Children—Music by Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra—Good Time Promised

Sonoma—that is the greater part of Sonoma pleasure lovers—will dance tonight at Union Hall, at the ball which has been arranged by Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, not alone because of the fact that a good time is a foregone conclusion with the Native Sons as hosts, but also due to the knowledge that the proceeds are to help homeless children—unfortunate little folk who are dependent upon the warm generosity of this splendid fraternity for shelter.

The afore, our people will tax the capacity of the spacious dance hall to its very utmost, not only by the many who enjoy dancing but also by the more conservative men and women of the community whose desire it is to help swell the receipts of this benefit.

Union Hall has been beautifully decorated under the direction of Paul Robin, who is an artist of exceptional skill, and under his left touch artistic effects will result. The Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra will furnish music, refreshments are to be served, and no detail of arrangement has been neglected by Committeemen John Picetti, Chas. Groskopf and Roy Pauli.

AT THE DON

Saturday night of next week, February 6th, "Sports and Travel in Central Africa," will be the attraction at Sonoma popular little playhouse, the Don Theatre. This masterpiece in the line of photography is both interesting and instructive, and students especially should avail themselves of the opportunity to acquire geographical and general knowledge from viewing this production. The popular price of admission, ten and twenty cents, will be charged to view this splendid attraction.

WEDDING BELLS FOR HAPPY SONOMA COUNTY TWAINS

Miss Edna Poppe To Be February Bride—Ralph Bundschu To Wed Miss Geary at Pretty Ceremonial.

Betrothal Announced

From Glen Ellen comes a bit of gossip of very great interest to a large circle in which Miss Edna Poppe is a favorite. While Dame Rumor over and anon has whispered of the existence of a charming romance, yet the announcement by the young lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Poppe, of her engagement to Morris B. Cooper, of the State Hospital at Eldridge, will come somewhat in the nature of a surprise. The wedding will take place in the near future, and is to be a simple ceremony. The fair bride, who is a connection of one of the most highly connected and representative families in the Sonoma Valley, is a talented young woman, with a host of friends to extend congratulations.

Geary-Bundschu Wedding

Another wedding of much interest to Sonoma Valley residents is that of Miss Jean Geary and Ralph Bundschu, which will take place Saturday evening, February 27th, at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Hon. and Mrs. T. J. Geary. Mrs. Ernest L. Finley will be matron of honor and the Misses Helen Geary and Helen Wright are to serve as bridesmaids. Rudolph Bundschu will support his brother as best man. Miss Geary was the accomplished guest at a dance given in her honor, last Saturday night, by Mrs. Mark L. McDonald, Jr., at Santa Rosa. Miss Geary is one of the most prominent members of the younger social set in the City of Roses. Mr. Bundschu has a host of interested and well-wishing relatives and friends in this section.

Miller-Van Fleet Nuptials

From the Press Democrat, we take the following account of the Miller-Van Fleet nuptials: At a simple and beautiful wedding ceremony, Monday morning, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Kathleen Miller became the wife of Clark C. Van Fleet. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ernest Bradley of the Church of the Incarnation. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Van Fleet left by auto to spend their honeymoon at Inverness, the country home of the Van Fleets.

The wedding came as very much of a surprise to the friends of the young people, although the engagement was announced some time ago. In accordance with the wish of the bride the ceremony was simple and was attended only by a few relatives. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue. The ceremony was performed beneath a beautiful canopy of greenery in a bower of smilax and ferns.

Mrs. Van Fleet is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Boone Miller, of Santa Rosa, and is an attractive young woman with many friends. She attended the schools of Santa Rosa and is very popular socially.

Van Fleet is the son of Judge and Mrs. W. C. Van Fleet of San Francisco and is engaged in business in Santa Rosa. He is very popular socially and in the business world. After the honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Santa Rosa.

Mr. Van Fleet is well and favorably known in Sonoma, having spent considerable time here in the interests of the California Telephone and Lighting Company, with which he was connected for a considerable length of time. Many friends extend cordial best wishes for the happiness of the young groom and his fair bride.

CHORAL SERVICE

On next Sunday afternoon, at five o'clock, a special Choral Vesper Service will be held in the Trinity Episcopal Church. A fine program of musical numbers is to be rendered as follows:

Processional, Hymn 519.
Magnificat.
Nunc Dimittis.
Kneeling Hymn 13.
Anthem, "Through the Day Thy Love Hath Spared Us," Shelley.
Hymn 535.
Offertory, "Praise the Lord," Maurider.
Recessional, Hymn 398.

CONCERT BY FAMOUS COLORED JUBILEE COMPANY

Gifted Singers To Render a Fine and Varied Program of the Comic and Sentiment Songs of Southland.

Friday night, February 12th, at Union Hall, Buckner's famous Dixie Jubilee Concert Company of seven colored talented artists, will appear under the auspices of the Board of Directors of the Congregational Church.

There is really no necessity in writing any preamble or announcement in offering the Dixie Jubilee Singers to the American Public. For more than twenty years this company has been delighting audiences throughout the United States, and during that time it has never been necessary to utter an apology either for the work or the actions of the company.

The programs presented by the Dixies, are the greatest successes ever presented by a Jubilee Company. They draw from a fine repertoire of music, rich in harmony and varied in selection. They are replete with jubilees, new and old, plantation songs, negro melodies, camp meeting songs, comic darky songs, negro lullabies, sweet sentiment songs, comic, classic and sentiment songs of the southland home, cabin and river songs of the old slavery days in choruses, quartets, trios, duos and solos sung by the master voices of the Dixie Jubilee Singers.

Sonoma music lovers are anticipating a rare treat in the concert to be rendered by this renowned company of colored artists, and it is safe to predict that Union Hall will be thronged on the night of Friday, February 12th.

CHURCH WORKERS' ANNUAL MEETING

The Missionary Society of the Congregational Church held its annual meeting at the Horatio Appleton home, Tuesday afternoon, the 26th, with Mrs. Appleton and daughter, Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame as hostesses.

The secretary reported monthly meetings have been held throughout the year at homes of members, with a good attendance. Three new names were enrolled during the past twelve months.

Interesting reports were also presented of an "Experience Social" and "A Circle Tea," which were given to raise funds.

Much deeply interesting and instructive literature is read at these meetings, and thoughtful minds and tender hearts are oftentimes stirred and touched by true accounts of the lives of devoted Missionary workers in remote mountainous sections, or rugged lowland districts in our land or beyond the seas.

In November, two large bales of useful clothing and other necessities were sent to Home Missionary headquarters for distribution among needy pastors and families in our own State.

The treasurer's report showed all dues in, and that the Benevolence apportionment of sixty-five dollars, in quarterly payments, had been fully met, the Society thereby achieving a place upon "The Roll of Honor" at State headquarters. The Society thoroughly believes in its work, and longs for other hearts and hands to join in its accomplishment.

Annual election resulted in the continued service of last year's efficient and zealous officers as follows: President, Mrs. O. J. McKinnon; Vice President, Mrs. T. M. Price; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. H. Appleton.

IMPORTANT REALTY SALE OCCURS ON WEDNESDAY

F. Picetti and Sons, John and Louis, Purchase Breitenbach Tract, Which Will Be Subdivided Into Lots.

A realty transfer of considerable importance consummated this week was the purchase by Messrs. F. John and Louis Picetti from City Trustee George Breitenbach of the Breitenbach tract, on Napa Street, opposite the Grammar School.

The land, which embraces eight and one-third acres, is beautifully located, in one of the most desirable sections of the city, and when Messrs. Picetti have carried into effect the plans in mind for the subdividing and improving of the property, they will experience no difficulty in finding ready sale for the home sites.

Next week the tract is to be surveyed, streets laid out, sidewalks made, and the land terraced. As soon as the sites are in readiness, three handsome and substantial bungalows will be erected thereon by Messrs. Picetti—that erected by Mr. Picetti, Sr., to be occupied by himself and family, and the other homes—those to be constructed for John and Louis—to be bachelor quarters, we presume. Sonoma is certainly to be congratulated on numbering among the residents men of such enterprise, and so strongly imbued with the spirit of progress as the Picettis—father and sons, and when their new possessions are in shape the City of Sonoma will have further reason to congratulate itself on the splendid improvements which will add materially to its attractiveness.

INITIAL CARD PARTY SUCCESS

Mrs. Arthur S. Lucas carried off the honors as the most successful lady player, and George Leiser as the luckiest gentleman gamster at the card party given by the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, in the Schocken parlors, Friday night of last week. Mrs. Lucas was given a pretty hand-painted cup and saucer, and Mr. Leiser had an opportunity to treat his friends to some of the fine Sonoma Valley apples from the R. L. Watt place, a box of which was awarded the gentleman.

The club parlors were nicely decorated for the occasion, and the many who were assembled expressed themselves as delighted that the ladies have resumed these evenings, monthly, at cards which were so pleasure affording last winter. The committee in charge, Mesdames A. H. Bates, L. V. Empanan, R. L. Watt, H. H. Eaton and Carrie A. Burlingame, were highly complimented on the success of the function.

TO PROTECT THE POULTRY INDUSTRY

A petition—addressed to the members of the Senate and Assembly representatives of the California Legislature—was circulated the past week in Sonoma Valley, and throughout the county generally, praying that honorable body to "Please pass as rapidly as possible the bill now pending, known as Rural Credit Plan."

The petition further asks the State Legislators to "Memorialize Congress to enact at once a law prohibiting the further export of wheat from this country until a permanent and lasting peace has been concluded between the warring nations of Europe and Asia."

The document is fathered by the Sonoma County Poultry Federation, whose headquarters are located in Petaluma. This organization is active in endeavoring to protect the poultry interests not only of Sonoma County, but of the State in general, and copies of the petition have been sent from the Petaluma headquarters broadcast throughout California.

We endeavored to secure a reprint copy of the proposed Rural Credit Plan, but were unable to do so. Next week we hope to present this, affording our readers a perfect understanding of what the measure stands for.

News of the Week from Vineburg and Schellville

VINEBURG

Horry Brandt, a well-known citizen of Vineburg, sailed on Monday last for Honolulu on the American-Hawaiian Company's Steamer Virginian, on which he is first chief assistant engineer. From the island port the steamer will proceed to New York via the Panama Canal. Bon voyage, Harry, and safe return home.

Mrs. August Figone and family, of San Francisco, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto, returning home on Sunday evening.

Howard Brown, manager of the A. W. Lehrke interests in this part of the valley, paid a flying business trip to the metropolis, Monday last, and returned the same evening Quicktrip, Howard, but business is business.

Chas. Groskopf—"Helio Charlie"—visited Napa on Friday last, returning the same day. What a lucky boy!

Saturday night last, at the Prize Dance, at Glen Ellen, the lucky winners were William Block—"Our Willie," of Vinburg—and sister, Miss Eva Block, of El Verano. We think that, if Mr. Block makes as good a showing on the Sonoma baseball field, this season, as he did at the Glen Ellen ball, Vineburg will take off its hat to him.

Supervisor Harry Weise visited this part of the valley, last week, to inspect the roads. Of course, we do not know what he thought about them, but most of our heaviest taxpayers think they need more attention than they receive.

Mrs. L. M. Johansen, one of the pioneer ladies of this section, and well-known throughout Sonoma Valley, who left here a few weeks ago for medical treatment, was successfully operated upon at Saint Winifred's Hospital, San Francisco, on January 13th. The many friends of the esteemed lady will be pleased to hear that she is getting along fine.

Frank Nolan, of San Francisco, who has been a guest at New Vineburg Inn, for the past two weeks took Wednesday's morning train for Tuolumne County to inspect his mining interests there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke and son, Master Henry, were guests at New Vineburg Inn and Los Amigos Ranch several days this week. Mr. Lehrke is now erecting a fine, large apartment house near the Exposition grounds in San Francisco. Wm. Fields well-known here is superintending the building.

A grand dance, the first given will take place at New Vineburg Inn, Saturday night, February 6. Excellent music will be furnished, and a good time is promised to all Messrs. Chas. Groskopf and Will Block will manage the affair.

Mrs. Gus Rouque is at present the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Neubauer, at her home in Concord, Contra Costa County. Mrs. Rouque will be absent several days.

Messrs. Fred and Arthur Batto transacted business in the metropolis on Thursday last.

Edward Rodeon, of the Hyde Tract and Miss Nellie Lynch, of San Francisco, were married in the Exposition City, on Sunday last, and will in the future reside on the Hyde Tract.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyde, of San Francisco were weekend visitors to the Old Hyde Homestead and returned to the City, Sunday.

EASY JIM.

SCHELLVILLE

Joe Miller went to San Francisco Saturday and was greeted by a number of friends.

Carl Jacobs was a well-known visitor in the bay cities on Saturday last.

E. E. Bennett made a business trip to Petaluma last Tuesday.

J. Windrow, of San Francisco, was looking over his ranch last Sunday.

Mrs. W. Clement, of Eden Dale, had a pleasant visit from her son Edgar the week-end.

Mrs. A. Converse and baby daughter are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schumacher this week.

Mrs. Robt. Hall, of the fine Sunny Vale Home, entertained relatives from San Francisco last week.

Friends and relatives of San Francisco had the pleasure, last week, of a visit from one of our popular girls—Miss Lena Aeschler.

Supervisor Harry Weise made a business trip to Schellville on Friday of last week, and as usual met many friends.

Mrs. J. A. Landsborough has returned home having spent a fortnight with relatives at Pacific Grove.

Miss Bessie Knight, a former popular resident of this place, spent Sunday with us, enjoying the day calling on relatives and friends.

Miss Arzola Schumacher spent the week-end at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. G. Monroe of Sonoma.

Mrs. J. F. Leahy, Misses Julia Brosman and Evelyn Leahy, of San Francisco, were guests at the Erhard Steiger home Sunday last.

Little Miss Evelyn Steiger returned home, Sunday, after a nice vacation with relatives in and around San Francisco.

Ed Van Sant, a well-known San Francisco veterinarian, is the guest of Otto Brandt this week. While here, the gentleman has performed several operations and given medical treatment to animals. So successful has been his work that the farmers are in hopes that this skillful doctor will locate here, as a man of his superior knowledge is really needed in this section.

Miss Helen Johnson and W. Jacobson and son Arthur, all of Glen Park, spent Sunday at the Steddom ranch.

HAPPY JACK.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Cooking Class gave informal luncheons on Tuesday and Wednesday. Several outsiders were present, among them being the Misses Hawkins, Schofner, McGlynn and Maldonado. From all reports the affairs were a great success, and we hope there will be more of them.

The Basket-Ball game, Friday night of last week, between the High School and the Apollos Club was won by the High School after a hard and fast game, by the score of 29 to 19. The High School lineup was as follows: Forwards, Dresel and Zero; center, Duhring; guards: Prestwood, Ranker and O'Connor.

Friday evening, January 29, the Boys' and Girls' Basket-Ball teams will journey to Calistoga to play a double-header with the High School of that town.

We welcomed three new pupils into our midst last week, namely: Oscar and Frank O'Connor and Phil Zero.

Local News Notes of General Interest

Happenings in The Sonoma Valley of a Business, Social and General Character

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ryland returned, Wednesday evening, from San Francisco.

Mrs. Pauline McMullin was a Sonoma visitor in the metropolis, Wednesday.

City Trustee Charles Dal Poggetto was a prominent Sonoma business man at the county seat, Wednesday.

Saint Barbara's Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hotz, Tuesday afternoon of next week, February 2nd, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laurenzi are here from San Francisco, summoned by the passing of the gentleman's sister, Miss Matilda Laurenzi.

Robert La Torres is expected home tonight for a week-end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. La Torres.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Rivara (nee Miss Giglia Dal Poggetto), who returned from their bridal trip a week previous, came up from San Francisco, Sunday, and spent the day with relatives and friends here. The newly-weds are nicely located in the metropolis.

Mrs. Frederick T. Duhring and Miss Meta Stofen spent the fore part of the week in San Francisco, where they attended the meeting of the House of Chnrchwomen of the Diocese of California, held in Grace Cathedral.

Mrs. Louis Breitenbach spent Sunday at the State Hospital at Eldridge, where her daughter, Miss Gertrude—who is an efficient attaché of the institution—has been very ill with bronchial pneumonia. The young lady's many friends throughout the valley will hear with pleasure that she is well on the road to recovery.

Miss Florence Rubke, one of Sonoma's Valley's successful educators, who has been enjoying a several weeks' vacation with her relatives and many friends hereabouts, will resume charge of her classroom at Marshalls next week. Part of her vacation period was spent by Miss Rubke in San Francisco.

Messrs. M. Mangiante, F. Dal Porto and F. Rubke are the gentlemen named to arrange for the second annual banquet to be enjoyed by the members of the Sonoma Moose Social Club. The feast is to be served at the El Dorado Hotel on the night of Monday, February 5th. Something good to eat and a jolly time is, quite properly, anticipated by the members of the Club.

From T. J. McGimsey, storekeeper of the bonded warehouse in this city, we learn that Internal Revenue Officer George Butterfield, of Healdsburg, will arrive in Sonoma today (Saturday) for the purpose of transferring to Santa Rosa and San Francisco the brandy now in store here. The liquor comprises eighty packages, which is in the neighborhood of ten thousand gallons.

The Union Service conducted each Sunday night by the Congregational and Methodist Churches is attracting much attention. Last Sunday night it was held at the Congregational Church, Rev. Edwin F. Brown, of the Methodist Church, preaching the sermon. The special music by the choir was a feature of the service. Tomorrow (Sunday) night the service will be at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. John Sholden are coming up from San Francisco, tonight, to be present at the celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Sholden's brother, Judge Lester B. Small. Today his Honor reaches the "hale" age of twenty-nine years, and the auspicious event will be commemorated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Small where will be entertained a party of the young man's friends at cards. Judge Small will be showered with congratulations today by a legion of friends.

Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame entertained the choir of the Congregational Church, Thursday evening, providing a most pleasurable time for her guests. Music and games were enjoyed, a "Fish Guessing Contest" forming a most interesting and novel diversion. The prizes for the greatest success in guessing were won by Miss Emma Johnson and Prof. M. H. Rowell. Another original pastime was the hunting for refreshments, which were daintily wrapped and hidden away in various nooks and corners. Miss Henrietta Weber won the prize for gathering the largest amount of eatables. The following named were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowell, Mr. and Mrs. McAllister, Misses Henrietta Weber, Nancy and Zoleta Bates, Alta Rice, Ethel Shane, Emma Johnson, Helen Rowell, Helen Antrim; Messrs. Al Jansen, Fred Knolle and Ralph Busby.

Mrs. Carrie Dependener, the popular teacher in the Vineburg district, was the victim of a painful accident Monday evening, when she slipped and fell from the porch of her residence, suffering a severe sprain of the right ankle and breaking a bone above the knee. Mrs. Dependener, who was alone at the time, lay for quite a period before her calls for help were heard by Messrs. Will and Harry Dunn, who were on their way to meet the evening train, and who went to her assistance. Dr. A. M. Thomson was summoned to attend the injured woman, who was later conveyed to home of her sister, Mrs. George Breitenbach, in this city, where she is resting quite comfortably. Mrs. Dependener's school has been closed temporarily, and it is thought and hoped that, with the aid of crutches, she will be able to resume charge of her classroom very shortly.

Thursday night, January 28th, Mrs. Lillian Ferguson, District Deputy Grand President, of Gev-serville, installed the new officers of Verdant Rebekah Lodge, as follows: Mrs. Blanche Rambo, Noble Grand; Mrs. Alice Wagon, Vice Grand; Mrs. Entelman, Treasurer; Miss Jessie Hiser, Secretary; Warden, Miss Gladys Small; Conductor, Miss Grace McGimsey; Chaplain, Mrs. Emma A. Small; Inside Guardian, Miss Amy Rowe; Outside Guardian, John D. Wagon; R. S. N. G., Harry Dunn; L. S. N. G., Miss Stella McGill; R. S. V. G., Chas. La Torres; L. S. V. G., Miss Ethel Revie. The installing officer, Mrs. Lillian Ferguson, was accompanied by Deputy Grand Guardian Maud C. Meyer. Past Noble Grand Miss Ethel Kinne, who has been a faithful and efficient officer, was presented with handsome emblematic pin in recognition of her services.

The Apollos Club, an organization of young men connected with the Methodist Church, tendered a banquet to some of their friends, last Saturday night, in the social hall of the church. Nearly forty sat down at the tables, which were loaded with all sorts of good things to eat. Among the guests of honor were the members of the High School basketball team, against whom the Club played a game the night before at Union Hall. After the supper, games were played until a late hour. The Apollos Club, besides being interested in the study of the Scriptures, holds meetings of a social and literary nature, and engages in wholesome athletics. A track team and also a baseball team are being organized for the spring and summer seasons, and many good games with rival teams are anticipated. The Club expects to give a comedy sketch in the near future for the purpose of raising funds to carry on its work. Clyde Johansen is the president of the organization.

AT REST

On Wednesday, January 13th, at the Home of the Sisters of the Poor, San Francisco, Mrs. Maria Clements passed away, at the ripe age of eighty-three years.

But meager facts are known of the life of the venerable woman who for many years lived in the Sonoma Valley, and who was well known, respected and liked by old and young.

Mrs. Clements was a native of Germany. She leaves one son, M. Clements, formerly of El Verano, but now a resident of San Francisco, and several grandchildren, numbered among whom is Mrs. Jos. Groskopf of this city.

The remains of Mrs. Clement were interred in San Francisco.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends whose sympathy and regard was extended in thoughtful acts during the long, weary illness, and at the death of our beloved husband and father, Frederick C. Poulson. We are also deeply appreciative of the beautiful floral tributes sent.

Mrs. F. C. POULSON AND FAMILY.

I am all alone in my chamber now, And the midnight hour is near, The fagots crack and the clock's dull tick Are the only sounds I hear. But, oh, my sob in its solitude, Sweet feeling and a sadness glides For my heart and my eyes are full When I think of the dear one that died.

Housekeeper Wanted.

Wanted—A competent woman or girl as working housekeeper. Call on or address Mrs. C. T. Ryland, Sonoma.

THE GRIM REAPER GARNERS A LARGE WEEK'S HARVEST

Old-Time Residents of Sonoma Valley Respond to Final Summons and Are Laid to Rest

Frederick C. Poulson entered into rest Friday night of last week, January 22nd, at his residence in this city, the end coming as a welcome release to the patient sufferer, after an illness of many months' duration.

Frederick Christian Poulson was born in Denmark, December 16th, fifty-five years ago. In his early youth he left the Fatherland for the land which promises so much to the seeker for home and liberty, the United States, finally locating in California. For many years Mr. Poulson was a resident of Napa, from which city he came to Sonoma and engaged in the blacksmithing business, pursuing that occupation until failing health necessitated his retirement.

During the years spent in this city and his association with the people of this valley in a business way, Mr. Poulson made many friends. He was a man of warm, generous impulses, and sterling business qualities and from the haunts of men he will be missed.

Besides his wife, deceased leaves four daughters and three sons, viz.: Mrs. Nora Kennedy of Long Beach, Mrs. Margaret Green of Napa, Mrs. Jennie Feige of San Francisco, Eileen E., John F., and Lawrence E. of Sonoma, and Walter P. Poulson of El Verano. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, at two o'clock, from the St. Francis Catholic Church, which faith Mr. Poulson had embraced shortly prior to his death. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery.

Miss Martha E. Wooster, a member of a former well known and respected pioneer family, after a brief illness of pulmonary trouble, passed away at the Hanger-Hunter Home, Friday night of last week, and on Sunday morning the remains were placed in the receiving vault at Mountain Cemetery prior to their shipment to the East.

But meager authentic facts were to be obtained of the life of the deceased woman, but those who knew her most intimately judge the years of her life to have been almost four score.

In early childhood Miss Wooster came to the Sonoma Valley with her parents, who passed away here years ago. She was a prominent and successful school teacher in Sonoma for many years some fifty years ago, and pioneer residents remember with loving thought the gentle young woman who presided with sweetness and dignity over her classes.

Later, Miss Wooster was appointed postmaster, in which capacity she served this city faithfully and well for a long period of time. She continued to reside in Sonoma, in her cozy cottage on Broadway, passing the twilight of life peacefully, in the enjoyment of the fine, unbroken friendships which had strengthened as the sunset gathered. The tender hands of these dear, thoughtful friends ministered to her when the sands of her life ran low, and closed her eyes in death when the Creator called back her spirit to Himself.

A host of friends of the family throughout the Sonoma Valley learned with heartfelt regret of the death of Miss Tillie Laurenzi, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laurenzi, respected residents of this valley. Wednesday, January 27th, at the break of dawn, the spirit winged its way from its mortal tenement back to its Creator, death resulting from paralysis of the brain.

Matilda Clara Laurenzi was born in Johnsville, Plumas County, Oct. 7th, twenty-seven years ago, where the Laurenzi family made their home until about ten years ago when they located in the Sonoma Valley. Passing from the bloom of maidenhood to the more mature years, the worthy qualities of the gentler sex expanded in the young woman, winning for her the high regard of those who came within her influence, and the warm friendship of all who knew her well.

Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laurenzi, the beloved girl leaves two brothers and two sisters to mourn her untimely departure from earth. Of these her brother, Peter Laurenzi, resides in San Francisco, while Ceasar and the Misses Anna and Katherine—to whom she was most tenderly devoted—live in Sonoma. Other relatives, in various parts of the State, also survive.

The funeral will take place today (Saturday), at eleven o'clock, a. m., from the St. Francis Catholic Church and all that is mortal of the much-loved daughter, sister and friend will be consigned to rest in Mountain Cemetery.

Sunday Services at the Churches of Sonoma

Congregational Church
(T. M. PRICE, Pastor.)
Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock.
The topic will be: "Thoughts on the Golden Rule." Until we think about a thing we will not act about it. No one is more amusing than the people who say that this is their creed when they could not repeat it or be sure of its origin. Never claim to be honest, for a man must learn to be honest with himself ere he can be honest in all his dealings. Charity is the only wise and competent thing that in every action is unfailing.

The Y. P. S. C. E. meeting will be at 6:30 p. m. The services will be held in the Methodist-Episcopal Church.

The Union Service will be in the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening, at 7:30 p. m. The sermon will be by the Rev. Price. He will speak of "The Greatest Thing on Earth." You may enter it on a condition, and in the enlargement of the condition is the way of conquest. You grow by keeping on beginning. You are invited

DISTRIBUTION OF FORAGE CROPS

Farmers May Receive Samples of Forage Seed Free With Instructions for Culture.

The Department of Agriculture is authorized by the Act of Congress making appropriations for that department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, to distribute certain new and rare forage crops, and has asked the cooperation of members of Congress in placing samples of these new forage crops in the hands of farmers who would be interested in testing them, and who would report to the Department the results of the test. Each sample contains a sufficient quantity of seed for a satisfactory field trial.

The following varieties and amounts of seed have been allotted to Congressman Wm. Kent for distribution in the First District: Fetaria—three hundred and sixty five five-pound packages.
Milo—three hundred and fifteen four-pound packages.
Peruvian Alfalfa—thirty five
four-pound packages.
The seed will be sent to those with whom suitable arrangements can be made, together with full instructions regarding the culture of the crops. The size of the packages has been determined as the result of the Department's previous experience in the testing of these crops and the Department deems it advisable that each individual should receive not more than one package of each variety—three packages altogether.

If these farmers who are interested in testing these crops and who would be willing to make reports to the Department on the results of the test, will write Congressman Kent, stating which of the crops they desire to test, he will be glad to forward their names to the Department, which will then send the seed direct to the applicant, together with instructions for culture and a report card on which the report desired by the Department is submitted at the close of the growing season. Those making application for test packages should write their name and address very plainly, so that there will be no mistake made in delivery of the seed.

at the Southwest corner of land formerly owned by Lorenzo Modini, and running thence southerly along and with said westerly line of said lot a distance of seventy-three (73) feet to a point; thence easterly and parallel with the southerly line of said lot a distance of one hundred and nine
(109) yards to the westerly line of Lot No.
36; thence southerly along and with the westerly line of said Lot No. 36, a distance of seventy-three (73) feet to a point, and thence westerly and parallel with the southerly line of said Lot No. 36, a distance of one hundred and nine (109) yards to the point of beginning.

Second: Part of Lot No. 36, as designated on the official map of said City, commencing at the Northeast corner of lot No. 35,
and running East, along the Street now called Spain Street, 60 yards, and from thence in a southerly direction 100 yards to the South line of said lot No. 36; thence in a westerly direction along the said south line, 60 yards to the Southwest corner of said lot No. 36; thence in a Northerly direction along the west line of said Lot
No. 36, 100 yards to the place of beginning.
The object of said action is as follows:

1. To oblige the said Defendants to set forth the nature of their claims in and to said lands.
2. To obtain a decree of said Court whereby all claims of said Defendants, all and singular, in and to said lands, adverse to the said Plaintiff's ownership thereof shall be determined.
3. To obtain a decree of said Court declaring and adjudging that said Plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of said lands,
and that said Defendants all and singular have no estate in or to said lands, or any part thereof.
4. To have said Defendants, all and singular, by said Court, forever enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatever in or to said lands, adverse to said plaintiff.
5. To obtain an award and allowance by said Court to said Plaintiff of his costs in said action, and to obtain a such other relief as in the premises shall to said Court seem meet.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Superior Court in and for the County of Sonoma, State of California, this 22nd day of June, A. D. 1914.
